Thanksgiving Friday Feast November 24, 2017
Breaking Bread with the Hungry with
Deacon Ed Stoops

Our Lady of the Fields will again serve its traditional Thanksgiving meal on the Friday after Thanksgiving.

At this special celebration, a sit-down feast is prepared and served to the guests of the Breaking Bread with the Hungry Ministry. To accomplish this task, Our Lady of the Fields' parishioners donate food items (see the list on the flip side of this flyer) or cash, or volunteer to:

Prepare the meal at the OLF kitchen.

To participate, arrive at 1 pm to:

Make 300+ sandwiches

Slice turkeys and hams

Prepare green bean casseroles, sweet and mashed potatoes, stuffing, gravy, cranberries

Transport the food from OLF to St. Vincent's.

To participate, arrive at the kitchen door at 3 pm.

Serve at St. Vincent's. Arrive before 4 pm to:

Assist in filling the lunch bags to go

Prepare the tables for our guests and for serving

Serve the guests a Thanksgiving meal, hot coffee, iced tea or lemonade, and desserts

Clean up

All are invited to help. Children under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Thanksgiving Friday became Francine Friday to honor the memory of the social justice discipleship of Francine Stoops.
