

Berta Sabrio
Director of Liturgical Music
Our Lady of the Fields

I am thrilled to join the team at Our Lady of the Fields. I have been honoring my vocation to music ministry since I was four years old as one of the pianists in my Southern Baptist church in St. Louis, Missouri sitting on yellow pages phone books to reach the keyboard! I moved to New Orleans to attend college at Loyola University from where I earned my degree in Vocal Performance with a secondary concentration in keyboard studies. It was during this time that I became involved in the Catholic church and was drawn to the richness of the liturgy. I soon became a Catholic and, not long after, married my husband Dan who had been serving as a guitarist in the parish where I worked. We moved to Maryland, and I am most proud to be the mother of three incredible adult children, Justin, Laura, and Jeremy.

In addition to my position at Our Lady of the Fields, I also serve as the Associate Director of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians. NPM is dedicated to forming those who serve in musical leadership in the Church. Prior to accepting that position, I was the Pastoral Associate for Worship and Adult Faith at St. Francis of Assisi in Fulton for more than 21 years. Additionally, I have served as the cantor to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, served on the Archdiocesan Worship Committee, been the Chapter Director of the Baltimore Chapter of NPM, and presented MANY workshops and retreats.

It is a great gift to be part of this parish, and I look forward to worshipping with all of you!
