

Growing in Friendship with God- Lenten Reflections for 2021

Join us this Lenten season for the Growing in Friendship with God Lenten Reflection Series, beginning Wednesday, February 24th, and continuing each Wednesday evening from 7:00- 7:30PM via zoom. Please pre-register by emailing faithformation@olfparish.com to receive the zoom link to the meetings led by Dr. Little. Participants will reflect on selected articles and meditations by a variety of authors, one author per week. Articles will be posted to our website beginning the week of 2/15. Alternatively, you may submit your written reflections or questions to Dr. Thomas Little at thomas.little@archbalt.org. May this be a time of spiritual learning and growth for us all.

A Lenten Meditations Series Based on the Words of William A. Barry, SJ

In his book Lenten Meditations: Growing in Friendship with God, William A. Barry, SJ, wrote: Lent is a great time to give God a chance to convince you of God's desire for your friendship. Traditionally Lent has been a time of engaging in practices of penance or prayer that will ready us to experience, more and more deeply, the almost unbelievable love and generosity of God toward us wayward human beings.

This Lent grow in your friendship with God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit with a special series of reflections based on Fr. Barry's meditations for the coming Wednesdays of Lent. And as you pray with these reflections please pray for Fr. Barry who recently died just before this Lent.

The authors for each Wednesday are listed below and additional information will be posted weekly before the session.

- ❖ Wednesday of the First Week of Lent February 24 by Becky Eldredge and Marina McCoy
- ❖ Wednesday of the Second Week of Lent March 3 by Andy Otto
- ❖ Wednesday of the Third Week of Lent March 10 by Cara Callbeck
- ❖ Wednesday of the Fourth Week of Lent March 17 by Lisa Kelly
- ❖ Wednesday of the Fifth Week of Lent March 24 by Jurell Sison
- ❖ Wednesday of Holy Week March 31 by Maureen McCann Waldron
