A Statement from the Archdiocese of Baltimore

(Baltimore, MD) - The Archdiocese of Baltimore is saddened to hear the news concerning Monsignor Jeffrey Burrill, a priest of the Diocese of La Crosse, Wisconsin, and reports alleging possible improper behavior and his recent resignation as General Secretary of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). In recent years, Monsignor Burrill assisted sacramentally at the following parishes in the Archdiocese of Baltimore: Our Lady of the Fields, Millersville and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Crofton. There have been no allegations involving a minor.

In light of these allegations, and pending the outcome of an investigation, Monsignor Burrill's priestly faculties have been withdrawn in the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

The Archdiocese of Baltimore urges anyone who has knowledge of inappropriate conduct by clergy or other Church personnel to report it to Church officials using the instructions found on the Archdiocesan website (www.archbalt.org) by clicking on the "Ethics Hotline" tab at the top of the page or by calling 888-572-8026.
